

Career Transition Coaching

The Career Transition Coaching packages are bespoke and tailored for your individual needs. These packages can support you to explore an alternative, non-clinical career.

The Essentials

- understand your strengths, values and passions through exercises in self-assessment and personal insights
- explore the extensive range of alternative medical and non-clinical roles and access the hidden job market
- develop simple and natural ways of networking & learn how to leverage important contacts/relationships
- understand the strength of adopting a multi-pronged strategy to maximise existing and future opportunities
- narrow down career options through applying a logical, practical method of filtering career choices
- establish whether staying in a clinical career may be the right decision
- navigate your career path and plan a detailed step-by-step plan to reach your ultimate goal and ideal job

Additional Options

- build confidence to make a career change; overcome Imposter Syndrome
- leave a medical role completely, exploring feelings of loss that may come with losing a medical title
- craft impressive marketing material through CV Writing, cover letters/application forms, LinkedIn profile
- decide on how to create and structure a varied, portfolio career
- master winning interview techniques and skills to impress recruiters and nail the interview
- become a successful entrepreneur; setting up your own business
- access guidance and support in your first few months within a new role and organisation

Prices below outline two rates for mid-professional & senior professional career levels.
